

How to report a security-related issue to Valmet

Valmet encourages external entities such as independent researchers, industry organizations, customers, and other sources concerned to report product security issues to the Valmet PSIRT.

Reporter	How to report
Valmet customers	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Contact your Valmet Service using normal support channels2. Include a description of the potential vulnerability3. Valmet Service will contact you for further information and guidance, when needed.
Other external entities	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Send the information about the security related issue using the contact form on the Valmet web pages2. Include a description of the potential vulnerability3. If you would like Valmet to be able to contact you regarding the report, the please include your contact information and indicate your preferred communication method (email or phone).
Valmet personnel and Valmet partners	Report the security-related issue according to the internal guidelines for your organization.